Regardless of your mode of travel, eventually you want to reach the hotel, located about 5km from the campus of XJTLU Entrepreneur College, and 10 minutes by car.

By Plane:

- Shanghai Hongqiao Airport (上海虹桥机场, 42km from the hotel) is the nearest international airport, offering direct flights to all major airports in China. The airport is very closed to the Shanghai Hongqiao Railway station: 1 stop by subway Line No.10 from Terminal 1 and 2 stops from Terminal 2; or 1km by walk from Terminal 2. There are excellent transit railways to Taicang through Shanghai Hongqiao Railway Station. (See the section 'By train' below, for more information.) The train timetables to Taicang and ticket booking system can be found on the Chinese Railway official website: 12306.

- Shanghai Pudong Airport (上海浦东机场, 87km from the hotel) is the major international airport in Eastern China, serving all major international airlines, and offering direct flights to most countries in the world. From Terminal 2 of Pudong Airport, you can reach Shanghai Hongqiao Railway station directly by subway Line No.2 or by bus Airport Line No.1 (机场巴士一线). Of course, it is also very convenient to get the Hongqiao Railway Station by local taxi; it is easy to find the taxis place, following indicator at the airport exit. The table below shows the basic information on the 2 means (subway and bus) to get Hongqiao Railway Station:

	Subway Line No. 2 (地铁二号线)	Pudong Airport Line No.1 (机场巴士一线)
Origin - Destination	Pudong International Airport Station (浦东国际机场地铁站) – Hongqiao Railway Station (虹桥火车站)	Pudong Airport, Terminal 2 (浦东机场二号航站楼) – Hongqiao Railway Station (虹桥火车站)
Trip duration	≈ 1 hour 30 minutes	≈ 1 hour
Daily open hours	6:00 – 22:30	7:00 – 23:00
Frequency	4 minutes	30 – 60 minutes

By train:

There are two railway stations in Taicang: Taicang Railway Station (太仓站) and Taicang South Railway Station (太仓南站). If you live around the Jinagsu province, consider environment-friendly travel by train. From many major cities in China, inside or outside of Jiangsu province, Taicang railway stations can be reached with one or two stopovers, or even by direct high-speed trains. Some example of travel time and daily high-speed train operation frequencies (can be also found from the timetable on 12306):

- Shanghai (30 minutes), at least 1 direct train every 30 minutes
- Wuxi/Jiangyin (40 minutes), 1 direct train every 1 hour
- Kunshan (1 hour, transfer at Shanghai), 10 trains
- Nanjing, (1.5 to 2 hours), 1 direct train every 1 hour
- Hangzhou (1.5 hours), 2 direct trains
- Beijing (6 hours), 1 direct high-speed train
